PRESS

"Horror anthologies are a dime-a-dozen, but they rarely work as well as this one does, with its brisk pacing and excellent casting, and its alluring combination of prankish humor and sincere dread"

—Jeffrey M. Anderson, Common Sense Media

"[Director Michael] Dougherty takes a cue from Tarantino and plays with the format, stirring up, intercutting, and at times interweaving the strands into a smartly paced, playfully directed and entertainingly atmospheric collection"

—Sean Axmaker, The Stranger

"There are a lot of tricks in this movie, and a lot of treats - that isn't just a cheesy Halloween reference, it's the visible intended design of this funny, weird, sometimes actually unsettling movie"

—Tasha Robinson, Polygon

"This slick and twisted effort should enjoy lengthy shelf life as a Halloween perennial"

—Joe Leydon, Variety

"If you can think of a better American horror anthology than this one, I owe you some Halloween candy"

—Scott Weinberg, FEARnet
